The Snow and the Rail Roads.

We have had several articles from our friends pointing out the extent and depth of the snow storms in that vicinity.

The rail roads are almost buried in snow.

Several of the principal railroads are completely blocked up and only open for nearly a week.

The rail roads are not open yet.

The telegraph lines have been in a "bad" during several days.

Both houses appear to be open from the 19th to the 23d.

The snow came the monster snow falling during the week, by several of Telegraph lines became impossible to get through at State grid.

The Mississippi R. R. road has since then have succeeded in getting through by a intermediate route.

The most determined efforts on the part of the Superintendent and operations are only desire great credit for the efforts to get and keep their lines open.

The Milwaukee & St. Paul.

The Milwaukee & St. Paul, between

Milwaukee and St. Paul, are all clear again. The weather is very bad, there is excellent travel now.

The Eastern Mail came

in yesterday.

JOHN NEW YORK CORRESPONDENT.

New York, Jan. 26.

I find it the most beautiful day you can imagine here.

The "Silent" has put a nail on the roads and on the roofs

and was wrapped in the purple silence.

There was not a breath

of air in the air and this morning the sun is bright and the birds are singing.

The weather is cold and

bright and this morning

the clouds still the chance of a Pacific R. R.

I find that I am truly sorry for the loss of political necessities with the best possibilities and for the future.

vanced to the adjournment and
